

TodoList Project - Manual Testing Documentation

TodoList is a web-based application that allows users to create, edit, and manage tasks. This document contains the manual testing documentation and defect tracking for the project.

Manual Testing

Manual testing has been performed to ensure the functionality of adding, editing, removing, and managing tasks within the application.

Project URL

Access the live project here: TodoList Web App

Test Case Sheet

Defect Tracking Board

Notes

- Test cases include preconditions, steps, expected results, and actual results.
- Defects are categorized with priority to streamline the fixing process.
- This document serves as the testing summary for the TodoList project.